Subject: CMLTA Educational Session Survey

The CMLTA would like to provide educational content to both regulated members and the public regarding the ways in which in CMLTA protects and serves the public, including but not limited to

- Entry to Practice Requirements
- Code of Ethics
- Standards of Practice
- Continuing Competence Program
- Legislated process through which concerns about MLTs are addressed

To maximize participation and effectiveness of these educational sessions, the CMLTA would like to obtain input from its members regarding availability and modality.

Please take a few moments to provide the CMLTA with feedback through this short survey

We acknowledge that the land on which the CMLTA office is located is Treaty 6 territory and a traditional meeting ground for many Indigenous people. This is home to the Cree, Blackfoot, and Metis, as it is for the Nakoda, Tsuu T'ina, Chipewyan, and other Indigenous people. Their spiritual and practical relationships to the land create a rich heritage for our life as a community.
