REMINDERS

Please allow up to 3 weeks for processing and to receive your 2024 MLT practice permit. Please login to your member profile to see if your permit is available. Those choosing to renew mid-December, should not expect a 2024 registration and MLT Practice Permit by December 31, 2023.

If you have submitted your renewal and have not yet paid, please login to your member profile to check for outstanding invoices.

To ensure timeliness, fairness, and to meet fiduciary responsibilities, the CMLTA uses electronic means (email) as the primary source for all communication. All regulated members are responsible for receiving, reviewing, and where necessary, responding to all communications from the CMLTA.

Resources Available for Regulated Members

How To Complete Your Learning Plan for the Current Year

The CMLTA recognizes that learning can occur in a variety of ways, therefore we have created a resource to help Regulated Members complete their Continuing Competence Program requirements. This resource will help Regulated Members, step-by-step, complete their Learning Plan for the current year.

We acknowledge that the land on which the CMLTA office is located is Treaty 6 territory and a traditional meeting ground for many Indigenous people. This is home to the Cree, Blackfoot, and Metis, as it is for the Nakoda, Tsuu T'ina, Chipewyan, and other Indigenous people. Their spiritual and practical relationships to the land create a rich heritage for our life as a community.
