Subject: CMLTA Dec. 31 Renewal Deadline

2024 Renewal Season Ends Dec. 31!

2024 MLT Dues

Renewals submitted in December: $550 ($425 + $125 admin fee)
Late renewals submitted after Dec. 31: $650 ($425 + $225 admin fee)

REMINDERS

If you are no longer employed as an MLT in Alberta and you are not renewing your MLT Practice Permit, please submit a Notice of Non-Practice through your online member profile by clicking on "Change My Registration Status".

Please allow up to 2 weeks for processing and to receive your 2024 MLT practice permit. Please login to your member profile to see if your permit is available. Those choosing to renew mid-December, should not expect a 2024 registration and MLT Practice Permit by December 31, 2023.

The CMLTA office will be closed December 22, 2023 to January 1, 2024 and will not be available to provide technical support to members during that time.

We acknowledge that the land on which the CMLTA office is located is Treaty 6 territory and a traditional meeting ground for many Indigenous people. This is home to the Cree, Blackfoot, and Metis, as it is for the Nakoda, Tsuu T'ina, Chipewyan, and other Indigenous people. Their spiritual and practical relationships to the land create a rich heritage for our life as a community.
